FEDERAL GRAND JURY RETURNS INDICTMENTS

Madison, Wisconsin -- A federal grand jury in the Western District of Wisconsin, sitting in Madison, returned the following indictments today. You are advised that a charge is merely an accusation and that a defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.

MADISON MAN CHARGED WITH BANK ROBBERY AND DRUG & GUN CRIMES

Jarrett M. James, 28, of Madison, is charged with the robbery of Bank Mutual in Middleton, Wis. on March 16, 2006 and April 14, 2006. He is also charged with two counts of brandishing a firearm during each bank robbery.

In addition, James is charged with possession with intent to distribute five grams or more of crack cocaine, and possessing a firearm in furtherance of this drug trafficking crime. The indictment alleges that he possessed the crack cocaine and the firearm on November 3, 2006.

The indictment seeks the forfeiture to the United States of a 2000 Lexus automobile allegedly purchased with proceeds from the April 14, 2006 bank robbery.

If convicted, James faces 25 years on each bank robbery charge; an additional seven years on each count of brandishing a firearm during a crime of violence, to be served consecutively to any prison term for the robberies; a minimum of five years and a maximum of 40 years for the drug charge; and a consecutive five years for the associated gun charge.

The charges against James are the result of an investigation by the Middleton Police Department, Madison Police Department, and Federal Bureau of Investigation. The prosecution of this case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney John W. Vaudreuil.

SUPERIOR MAN CHARGED WITH POSSESSION OF CHILD PORNOGRAPHY

Christopher W. Dallum, 35, Superior, Wis., is charged with possession of a computer hard drive and two DVDs, which contained visual depictions of minors engaging in sexually explicit conduct. The indictment alleges that he possessed these materials on December 15, 2006.

If convicted, Dallum faces a maximum penalty of 10 years in federal prison. The charge against the defendant is the result of an investigation conducted by the Superior Police Department. The prosecution of this case has been assigned to Assistant U.S. Attorney Timothy M. O'Shea.

This case has been brought as part of Project Safe Childhood. In February 2006, the U.S. Department of Justice created Project Safe Childhood, a nationwide initiative designed to protect children from online exploitation and abuse. Led by the U.S. Attorneys' Offices, Project Safe Childhood marshals federal, state and local resources to better locate, apprehend, and prosecute individuals who exploit children via the Internet, as well as identify and rescue victims.
